Doggie Dude Ranch and the O'Cat Corral

One year later, Laurie Mattke's dreams of planning, designing, and building her own western-style luxury pet resort from the ground up have come true...and so much more!

After opening just one year ago, business is booming at the Doggie Dude Ranch and O'Cat Corral. "We are all thrilled with the response to our upscale pet resort. We knew there was a tremendous need for a non-traditional boarding facility," says owner, Laurie Mattke. "There is no other place like ours in the Denver area."

The luxury pet resort, located just east of Denver, in Watkins, has found its niche in the pet boarding world by offering pets all the amenities of a five star hotel, including all inclusive rates, unlimited play and pool time, and individual attention for all guests. They also offer canine massage, complimentary herbal shampoo baths, photos of your pets at play, and freshly baked homemade treats.

The pets have as much fun on vacation as their owners do on theirs. The owners take great comfort in knowing they can have a guilt-free, worry free vacation.

"This place is the BEST kept secret in Denver!," stated one client. "My dog loves the pool and all the playmates."

The ranch is fashioned after the "Old West", with much attention to detail. The rooms for the dogs have log beds with soft, comfy mattresses covered in denim. The cats have cozy beds in their five story condos, each having their own ventilation system. Soothing music can be heard throughout the building.

The compliments keep coming. The customers most like that the facility is in the country on 20 acres and is a family run business. Laurie, her sister, and brother all live on site.

There are various size play yards with artificial turf, and a large, full size pool. Dogs are put into groups according to size and temperament, although dogs that need to play on their own can be accommodated. A huge indoor play room with rubber floors keeps the dogs warm and dry during inclement weather.

The Ranch was built specifically as a boarding facility, with a well-designed ventilation system that keeps things smelling clean and fresh.

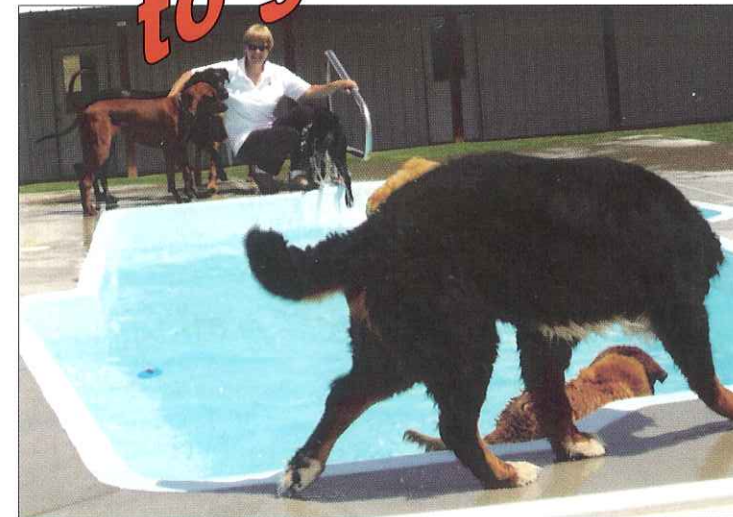

Our most popular amenity is the stagecoach pick up and drop off service. We can meet you at your home, or at the airport.

The staff is also most capable of caring for special needs dogs and cats, those who may need medication, or have special diet or exercise restrictions. Our clients want and expect a well-run facility with great customer service, and we provide it for them.

Tours are offered during regular business hours. Put on your cowboy hat and a bandana and come out for some fun at the Doggie Dude Ranch and O'Cat Corral! Call 303-366-2498 for reservations, or visit us on the web at dogcatranch.com.
